

Pedro Renner

Mr. Renner graduated as an Industrial Engineer from Buenos Aires National University, before gaining a Master in Senior Management and a post-graduate degree in Turnaround and Company Crisis Management. Mr. Renner began his career as a professional and executive in the areas of finance, investments, business development and general management, and later on held several Directorships in multinational companies such as Ford Motor Company, Bunge & Born, Mack Trucks Inc., IMPSA and Carbometal, both in Latin America and the USA.

As an entrepreneur in the late 80's, Mr. Renner founded Financonsult SA, a financial services company specialized in mid-market financing and asset management, and also successfully co-developed Gazebo, a retail chain sold to a French buyer (Groupe Le Duff) in the late 90's.

Together with two partners, Mr. Renner founded B.A.M&A in 1996.

Mr. Renner holds both Argentinean and EU citizenship, and is fluent in English, Spanish, Portuguese and French.