

Biatrice Jauffrineau

Founding President of FemmesBusinessAngels

www.femmesbusinessangels.org

Béatrice has 18 years of operational and consulting experience in an international environment.

For more than 11 years she has been advising and training: entrepreneurs of newly created companies, managers and directors (corporate governance), mainly in developing countries in Europe and Asia and on international donors projects. She has been working alternatively on an independent basis or managing projects for big consulting firms, such as Ernst & Young Paris.

Béatrice has moved to consulting after 7 years in operational positions (export for Nina Ricci, commercial and advertising executive, exhibition organisation).

During her studies (MBA at HEC business school, Institute of Political studies) she has spent more than 4 years abroad (Austria, Russia, China), teaching and learning languages and civilisation.
