

Michael Ter-Berg, MSc, Sloan Fellowship

Michael's experience is in start ups and major international companies, and includes operations, acquisitions, strategy and the licensing of intellectual property.

As CEO of Medic-to-Medic Ltd, a medical software company, he led the business from start up to several millions in sales. The company was a spin out of University College London and was sold in summer 2005.

Prior to Medic-to-Medic, Michael was Director of Development at DMG Information, part of the Daily Mail & General Trust Plc. DMG Information invests internationally in business to business and education companies in the information and software sectors. Michael's responsibilities included investments in early stage companies and supporting the businesses in planning and delivery.

Prior to DMG Information, Michael held sales & marketing management positions in international information and publishing companies. He was also a member of The Chatham House China Committee and board member of the Union Chapel arts venue. He now advises early stage businesses.